

APR 16 1965

Approved For Release 2002/05/09 : CIA-RDP83-01022R000100230026-1

Castro Cuba Is Exporting Revolt: CIA

BY WILLARD EDWARDS

(Chicago Tribune Press Service)

Washington, April 15 — A House foreign affairs subcommittee today released a report by the central intelligence agency which stated that communist Cuba is now concentrating its efforts on fomenting revolutions in Venezuela, Guatemala, and Colombia but not neglecting other Latin American countries.

The super-secret CIA almost never discloses its operations or conclusions and publication of the report was a surprise. It disclosed details based upon the evidence of a recent defector concerning Cuban financing of terrorist groups in Latin America.

The subcommittee reported yesterday that Fidel Castro's Cuba remains a serious threat to security in the western hemisphere. It released today the CIA report and a heavily censored transcript of the secret testimony upon which this conclusion was reached.

Advised by Russians

The Castro regime, the CIA report stated, now has in operation a highly professional espionage and subversion agency, the general directorate of intelligence [D. G. I.] which is advised by at least five Russian intelligence specialists. The D. G. I. selects Latin American targets for subversion and guerrilla activity and supervises guerrilla warfare training.

During 1963, a defector who worked with the D. G. I. reported, payments of $250,000 were made to Guatemalan revolutionary groups. About $50,000 was given to revolutionary groups in El Salvador, and $30,000 to a pro-Castro political group in Panama.

Aid Venezuela Terrorists

During the 1960-1964 period, the report said, more than a million dollars was given by Cuba in support of guerrilla activities in Venezuela. The communist terrorist apparatus in that country, known as the Armed Forces of National Liberation [F. A. L. N.], has stepped up its operations and "we expect the F. A. L. N. shortly to undertake a whole series of terrorist, political and psychological activities, including strikes, bombings and demonstrations to supplement its guerrilla activities."

Castro's instrument in Guatemala is the guerrilla movement led by Marco Antonio Yon Sosa and "there are increasing indications that Cuban-supported violence will be stepped up in